Back to His Texas Roots: Dr. Ravi P. Gada Joins Dallas- Fort Worth Fertility Associates

Dallas, Texas – September 04, 2012 – For over 13 years, Dallas - Fort Worth Fertility Associates has offered compassionate care and medical expertise to area residents struggling to conceive. Drs. Samuel Chantilis, Karen Lee and Mika Thomas deliver leading-edge therapies that help infertile couples achieve their dreams of parenthood. As part of a continued commitment to their patients, Dallas - Fort Worth Fertility Associates recently added Dr. Ravi P. Gada to their team.

“We are delighted to welcome Dr. Gada to Dallas Fort Worth Fertility Associates (DFW Fertility,” said founding partner Dr. Chantilis. “His first-rate education combined with his research background makes Dr. Gada a valuable asset to both our staff and patients.”

A native Texan, Dr. Gada was born in Lubbock and received degrees from both Texas Tech University and the University of Texas in Austin. “I am thrilled to return to my home state. Dallas - Fort Worth Fertility Associates is a top-notch fertility clinic with a stellar reputation,” said Dr. Gada. “The fact that this new opportunity has brought me back to Texas is an added bonus.”

After finishing his Ob/Gyn residency at the renowned Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN, Dr. Gada also completed a fellowship in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility and earned a second Master’s degree in Biomedical Sciences with a focus in Reproductive Endocrinology. Dr. Gada has focused his efforts on the medical and surgical treatment of infertility, endometriosis and uterine fibroids.

Dr. Samuel Chantilis explained the significance of Dr. Gada’s experience. “Dr. Gada’s training and research at the Mayo Clinic has kept him up-to-date on the leading-edge advances in infertility diagnosis and treatment. Our patients will reap the benefits of this knowledge.”
